

Canoeing

As a sport for the whole family, canoeing down the Main is suitable for almost all ages. With the new "Yellow Wave" signposting on the Main, it is now even easier to discover the region from the water. The boards along the Main provide those traveling along the river with information on the section of the route as well as on the opportunities for sightseeing and eating available on land.

